

About us

Since 2007, we are your competent partner for Bavarian-sympathetic events with teambuilding character.

On water, on land or in the mountains - individually tailored to your wishes.

You and your employees can take time out from everyday stress and find each other again during a joint together and recharge your batteries.

Whether seminars, conferences, incentives, teambuilding or your company celebrations - we create your individual, special experience. From personal consultation, professional organization and planning to on-site implementation - everything from a single source. For your outdoor event as well as for individual seminar concepts or your perfect evening event - we are your competent partner in Chiemgau.

Our focus: The appreciation of our nature, traditional crafts and customs.
